Softball FAQ's District 5 ALL-STAR

1. What is D-5 and where are the D-5 Tournaments held?

The District tournaments were started by Little League International in 1947. These tournaments give the players the opportunity to advance their play from the local District 5 tournament, to a Virginia state tournament, to a regional tournament and to a national tournament, should the team continue to win.

2. Is there an extra cost for playing D-5 All-Stars?

Yes, there is a uniform fee. Additional costs may be incurred if team advances past D5 Tournament. In addition, optional spirit attire and practice gear may be purchased.

3. When is the D-5 Tournament and practices?

Teams begin practicing around June 15th. The District 5 Tournament is usually held sometime between last week of June and first 2 weeks of July. Exact dates are not known until beginning of June each year. Teams normally practice up to 5 to 6 days a week for about 2 hours at a time.

4. Where is D-5 Tournament held?

D-5 Tournaments are hosted at one of D-5 Little League sites within greater Richmond area.

5. How far can each D-5 All-Star team progress?

The 9-10 and 10-11 yr old teams can progress to a State tournament if they first win District tournament.

The 11-12 yr old, Juniors (13-14) and Seniors (15-16) can progress to the World Series for their age group if win they win District, State and Regional tournament. Typically the World Series tournaments take place during middle to latter part of August.

6. How are the managers, coaches and players selected for the D-5 All-Star Teams and Invitationals?

Please refer to the TLL All Star Policy and Procedures posted on the TLL website for the specifics on each age group.

7. What players are eligible to participate in D-5 All-Star Teams?

Any registered player in good standing is eligible provided she has met the minimum number of games as required by Little League and the age requirements for that team. Please refer to the TLL All Star Policy and Procedures posted on the TLL website for other information regarding eligibility.

8. What are the participation expectations for the D-5 All-Star teams?
